

MAILING LIST

You can include anyone on your list who you think may be interested in your project. List people you think may support you in prayer or financially. Both are important and you may be surprised who will give to help your ministry financially. To remind you of people who might be interested in knowing about your ministry, look through your personal phone books, your church directory, yearbooks, etc.

Here's a list to help you think of others to send your letter to:

- Bible study and prayer group members
- Business acquaintances
- Campus leaders of Christian groups
- Christian businessmen in your church
- Christian business men's and women's groups
- Christmas card lists
- Church members
- Church missions committee/members
- Civic clubs
- Coaches
- Employers
- Fellow students
- Former or present teachers
- Friends
- Friends of your family
- High school and college friends
- Neighbors (present and former locations)
- Parents' employers
- Pastors
- People you have led to Christ
- Relatives
- Retired friends
- Rotary Club
- Sunday school classes
- Teammates
- Those who have influenced you spiritually
- Wedding lists